

THE TENNESSEE STATE DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Creativity took the stage as students honored the memory of the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazi persecution on April 13, 2015 in the State Capitol. Sen. Brian Kelsey and Rep. Mark White delivered opening remarks. Gov. Bill Haslam, Lt. Gov. Ron Ramsey, and Speaker Beth Harwell provided their reflections on, "Why We Remember the Holocaust." The ceremony concluded with a candle lighting by Holocaust survivors, liberators, and legislators. The "Living On" traveling exhibit was displayed in the main hallway of the State Legislature.
